ARGUMENT

Electronic Portfolios either this concerns the teaching or the learning process; especially when it comes to develop and foster the EFL, ELT, and the ESP fields, are a creative means of organizing, summarizing, and sharing artifacts, information, and ideas about teaching and learning, as well as personal and professional growth. The reflective process embedded in evidences supplying along with the statement of philosophy of portfolio development is a reliable and adequate means of measurements, evaluations and progressive betterments. Through the concepts of drafting, reading, reviewing, and editing after self and peer corrections, the range of abilities conveyed in the final product, the improvements in attitudes, the experiences gained, and achievements obtained cannot but praise these revolutionary tools' holders.

In this sense, the national conference which will be held in 1st and 2nd December, 2015, entitled:

Teaching and Learning Electronic Portfolios in EFL, ESP, and ELT Higher Education Realm

Is an opportunity for EFL practitioners, students and stakeholders to put into action their abilities and competences to develop, enhance, and cement their learning and professional processes. Furthermore, the event aims at suggesting, after analyzing, discussing and commenting the different cases of study, a new EFL Teaching and Learning Methodology based on implementing and integrating the new digital and pedagogical tool: the Electronic Teaching and Learning Portfolios in the fields of the event.
