

ELT SAUDI

Conference & Expo 2020

ELT SAUDI 2020

The English Language Institute at King Abdulaziz University is pleased to announce that the 1st Saudi International ELT Conference will be held on January 28-30, 2020 at King Faisal Conference Center. The conference theme:

“The Learner and the Context: Glocalization of ELT Practices” concentrates on exploring how local practices can best be infused with the latest research, methods, and systems for the ultimate benefit of the learner.

The conference features high-profile international and regional ELT speakers, global ELT publishers and accreditation bodies along with an expansive expo.

It is an opportunity for educators and leaders to connect with big ideas and explore ways in which to continue to enhance the quality of English language learning nationwide.

For more information, please visit the conference website at: <https://eltsaudi.org/>